DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Green.

Indents 26 are designed to reduce contact area and therefor reduce friction and heat.

Claim 32 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kobler et al.

In Fig. 1 blade 23 is shown to have holes. These holes would inherently function to cool the blade.

Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Andis ,616. Note that the upper portion of the plate, the portion with the holes, is the back plate.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 34 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Andis ,616. Note that coated teeth are old. Thus absent a showing of criticality such a modification would appear to be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

Art Unit: 3724

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 35 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
